

BUDAPEST WORKSHOP ON

YOUNG EUROPEAN CAREERS

Budapest Business School

23. April 2012, 2 p.m. – 6 p.m.

(1165 Budapest, Diósy Lajos u. 22-24., Központi épület, Tanácsterem)

Lecturers: Judit Hidasi (Dean, College of International Management and Business, Budapest Business School) • Jean Lemaître (Director of the International Department, Institut des Hautes Etudes des Communications Sociales, Brussels) • Adrienn Lótos (Permanent Delegate of the Brussels Office of the Confederation of Hungarian Employers and Industrialists – Business Hungary) • Attila Lovas (Deputy General Manager, Student Loan Center Hungary) • Csilla Stéger (Head of Department of Higher Education, Educational Authority)

Corvinus University of Budapest

24. April 2012, 2 p.m. – 6 p.m.

(1093 Budapest, Fővám tér 8., Központi épület, III. előadó)

Lecturers: Csaba Bugár (General Manager, Student Loan Center Hungary) • Jean Lemaître (Director of the International Department, Institut des Hautes Etudes des Communications Sociales, Brussels) • Adrienn Lótos (Permanent Delegate of the Brussels Office of the Confederation of Hungarian Employers and Industrialists – Business Hungary) • Csilla Stéger (Head of Department of Higher Education, Educational Authority) • Zoltán Szántó (Vice-Rector of Education, Corvinus University of Budapest)

- Young Hungarians as the “carriers” of their careers
- How to approach a European career in Brussels as a graduate / postgraduate Hungarian student?
- What do Hungarians sacrifice when trying their luck and moving to Brussels?
- Education possibilities
- Reality: Tuition fees and living costs vs. what a part-time job pays
- The new Hungarian student loan system
- Demand and supply in the Belgian labour market – Fields where employees are chased and crowded domains
- How to seek job opportunities?
- What a good CV and a motivation letter look like and what it takes to succeed in getting a job interview
- How to stay in Brussels as an employee and how to move further?
- And many other interesting topics for job seekers...

Come and ask your questions!

Organisers of the workshop: CulturElle Foundation (Budapest)
Anna Goldstein (Institut des Hautes Etudes des Communications Sociales, Brussels)